*Heidelberg Catechism Q&A #1
Q. What is your only comfort in life and in death?

A. That I am not my own, but belong—body and soul, in life and in death—to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven: in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

1. Speak, O Lord, as we come to you to receive the food of your Holy Word. Take your truth, plant it deep in us; shape and fashion us in your likeness, that the light of Christ might be seen to-day in our acts of love and our deeds of faith. Speak, O Lord,

2. Teach us, Lord, full obedience, holy reverence, true humility.
   Test our thoughts and our attitudes in the radiance of your purity. Cause our faith to rise, cause our eyes to see your majestic love and authority. Words of pow'r and full-fill in us all your purposes for your glory.

3. Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds; help us grasp the heights of your plans for us: truths unchanged from the dawn of time, that will promis-es; and by faith we'll walk as you walk with us. Speak, O Lord, that can never fail, let their truth prevail over unbelief.
   'til your church is built, and the earth is filled with your glory.

God Is Our Refuge and Our Strength

1. God is our refuge and our strength, a helper ever near us.
2. God's city is forever blest with living waters welling;
3. Behold what God has done on earth; his wrath brings desolation.

We will not fear though earth be moved, for God is nigh to cheer us.
Since God is there, she stands unmoved 'mid tumults round her swelling.
His grace, commanding wars to cease, brings peace to ev'ry nation.

Dr. Watkins grew up in a military home in North Carolina. His teenage years were dark and dangerous. While following the Grateful Dead across the country, he was given a Bible and met the Lord Jesus Christ in the pages of Scripture. Eric completed his Ph.D at the Theological University in Kampen (Netherlands) where he studied preaching in a postmodern context. He and his wife Heather live in St. Augustine, FL with their four children. Eric pastors Covenant Presbyterian Church which he planted in 2007.
